UNIVERSITY NEWS

Employee Appreciation Day and Hokie Wellness Health and Benefits Fair on May 18

Save the date for the university's first-ever Employee Appreciation Day from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. on May 18, at Lane Stadium. In addition, the Hokie Wellness Health and Benefits Fair will combine with the Employee Appreciation Day event to provide an enriched program for all. The event will provide health and wellness vendors, games, a DJ, hourly walking tours, lunch, and more. More

Survey on childcare needs open through April 4

Virginia Tech employees and students are encouraged to complete a brief survey to gauge the current use and needs regarding childcare. You do not have to be a parent to complete the survey. All submissions are anonymous.

FINANCE NEWS

VPF Annual Awards and Recognition Ceremony April 20

This year's ceremony will be held April 20 from 2:00-3:15pm on Zoom. Please RSVP and mark your calendars.

This year's program will include a trivia icebreaker, employee shout-outs, a keynote presentation from Kelly Oaks, AVP for Equity and Accessibility, and awards!

Thank you to all who submitted award nominations and employee shout-outs. In addition to the written shout-outs, there will also be an opportunity to record a video message highlighting a colleague or team. More info on this opportunity is coming soon.

Please reach out to your unit's Diversity Committee rep, or email us at vpfdiversity@vt.edu with any questions or suggestions. See you in April!

Thank You!

Through their "Souper TwosDay" lunch in February and "Italian Feast" lunch in March, employees in the Controller's Office raised $425 to provide breakfast to Virginia Tech's nursing staff and police officers. Donuts, yogurt and granola were delivered to 63 nursing staff at McComas Hall on March 18, and to 83 police officers and staff on March 25. Thank you to all employees who participated in this initiative!
